Self-Compassion Journal

Recalling the last week, reflect on times you practiced compassion:

| Times I Used Self-Compassion     | My Reflections                                  |
|----------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| Journal on the experience/event. | Reflect on the experience and what was helpful. |
|                                  |                                                 |
|                                  |                                                 |
|                                  |                                                 |
|                                  |                                                 |
|                                  |                                                 |
